How well does this case study...?

	Very well	Adequately	Okay	Not at all
Systematically and accurately analyze some aspect of human-environment interaction?
Meaningfully engage with least one theory that we learned about in Soc244?
Offer a logical argument towards a clear conclusion
Clearly present how this case is a “case of” a broader human-environmental process, problem, or conflict?
Define all key terms?
